

CHRISTOPHER DE GRUBEN

» PROFILE

I am a goal-orientated real estate investor and entrepreneur, versatile in emerging markets environments, adept at originating and carrying through niche-market transactions in which I can bring clear added-value. I have a real passion and understanding of the fundamentals surrounding transitioning economies and their potential for long-term growth creation. I specialise in value driven investments, property management, sales & marketing, urban planning, market research and land / property valuations. I have strong language and interpersonal skills. I am a Member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (MRICS) as a Chartered Valuation Surveyor.
