

UYANGA TSOGGEREL

PROFILE

Dedicated to the growth of businesses and their environment within Mongolia, Uyanga is a dedicated public actor, tirelessly lobbying for greater transparency and accountability from both the public and private sectors of Mongolia. With exceptional operational skills, Uyanga is most at home when managing complex structures within challenging environments using a wide variety of resources and her diverse network.

CAREER PROGRESSION

M.A.D. Investment Solutions - Co-Founder & Senior Partner June 2008 - Present

Uyanga is a Senior Partner in M.A.D. and is today in charge of all of its operations. She has had a brilliant career in the Mongolian Administration before moving on to the private sector and co-founding M.A.D. She benefits from a wide and influential network, is a legal and procedural specialist in addition to being a gifted operations manager. Most importantly in a country like Mongolia, she has an innate ability to get things done. She manages all on-the-ground operations and often sources the best investments opportunities for our investors.

Research Squared - Co-Founder

R² has rapidly become Mongolia's first truly comprehensive investment research institution with cornerstone off-the-shelf reports such as Mongolia's first comprehensive Property Report (450 pages), the MSE report and the groundbreaking Mongolian Who's-Who in addition to a wide variety of custom-made investment reports, business planning and reputational corporate due diligence products as well as site visits and desktop valuations.

"Erkhet Trade" Co Ltd. - General Manager of the "Erkhet Suld" Resort 2006 - 2007

Installation and implementation of marketing and management policy and new business plans, motivation in decision making for staff development policy and service development, organization of excellent services for customers, organization of all kind of conferences and seminars for local international and domestic organizations, monitoring the financial turn over.

General Department of Court Decisions Enforcement - Senior officer in charge of International Affairs, Member of the Secretariat Office, Staff training manager 2000 - 2006

The agency is organized under the authority of the Ministry of Justice and Home Affairs, Mongolia. The duties of the international liaison officer focused on development and cooperation with the relevant international and foreign organizations, the implementation of everyday and annual tasks, provision of administration and package information to the administrators and the organization and logistic for the delegates on mutual visits, preparation and presentation of National papers / reports for the international events and conferences, completion of periodical and annual reports of own sector, oral and written translation job for all the activities of the department, assistance to the administrator in the obtaining the necessary information and logistic for all kind of protocols, conducting trainings within local administrators and whole staff members in the field of introduction to international and human right standards.

EDUCATION

Mongolian National University of International Relations 1998
Bachelor Degree (International relations and diplomacy)

Mongolian National University – University of Finance 1998
High degree in accountancy and finance

Secondary Schooling - Mongolia 1992
Comprehensive Education - Russian General educational school 3

ABOUT ME

Email
uyanga@mad-mongolia.com

Address
Sukhbaatar District
4th Khoroo, B40 / U33
Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia

Nationality Mongolian
Date of birth 07/03/74
Marital Status Married

Languages - Fluent

Mongolian Russian English

Languages - Basic

French Mandarin

Computer Skills

Office suite
Content Management Systems
Social Networking Strategies

NETWORKING

Mongolia
Young Business Club
Mongolian National Chamber of Commerce - Real Estate Working Group